Are there any restrictions on cover?

- ! Certain limitations may apply to your policy. For example:
 - the excess (the amount you have to pay on any claim);
 - monetary limits for certain items or types of cover.
 - Endorsements may apply to your policy. These will be shown in your policy documents.
- ! Specific let conditions apply, these will be clearly shown in the endorsements on the policy schedule documents or in the policy wording under the section "General conditions, Exclusions and clauses which apply to the whole of this insurance policy" or more specifically in the cover sections on the right hand side stating "What is not covered".
- ! You must comply with all regulations/statutory conditions regarding the letting of the premises including, but not limited to:-
 - The number of persons legally allowed to reside at the premises,
 - Compliance with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988 (amended),
 - Having the minimum legal number of smoke detectors/fire extinguishers/fire blankets installed at the premises.
- ! All gas appliances fitted at the premises must be serviced by an individual registered with the Gas Safe Register on an annual basis. A valid Landlord Gas Safety (also known as a CP12 certificate) must be in place at all times when the premises are let to tenant(s) and records kept for a minimum of 2 years. We will request sight of these if you wish to make a claim.
- ! You must retain utility bills relating to the home as we may request sight of these following a claim for loss or damage caused by escape of water from and frost damage to fixed water tanks, heating installations, apparatus or pipes.
- ! There is no cover for Subsidence or heave of the site upon which the buildings stand or landslip whilst the buildings are undergoing any structural repairs, structural alterations, extensions or demolition.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ At the property you wish to insure in the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

What are my obligations?

- At the beginning of the period of insurance or when making changes to your policy, you must give complete and accurate answers to any questions you are asked relating to the insurance.
- You must tell us or your broker of you becoming aware of any inaccuracies or changes in the information you have provided to us, whether happening before or during the period of insurance.
- You must tell us or your broker of any changes to the type of tenant(s), as last disclosed to us and shown in the schedule;
- You must tell us or your broker if the property becomes unoccupied or unfurnished, becomes your permanent residence or becomes illegally occupied;
- You must tell us or your broker if your property is going to be used for short periods each week or as a holiday home;
- You must tell us or your broker if work is to be done on your property which is not routine repair, maintenance or decoration, for example any structural alteration or extension to your property;
- You must tell us or your broker if you or any member of your family receives a conviction for any offence except for driving;
- You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss, damage or an accident and keep the buildings in a good state of repair.
- You must tell us about any event which might lead to a claim as soon as possible.
- When we are notified of a change or of any planned structural work we will tell you if this affects your policy. For example we may amend the terms of your policy or require you to pay an additional premium. In certain circumstances we may cancel your policy in accordance with the "Cancelling This Insurance" section of the policy wording.

Failure to meet your obligations could result in a claim being rejected, a reduction in the amount we pay or the cancellation of your policy.

When and how do I pay?

You will be required to pay as soon as you proceed with cover or if it is a renewal then on or before your renewal date to guarantee continuous cover. If however you use an insurance broker they will provide you with information of when and how to pay them. We also operate an interest free 0% direct debit facility so can spread the cost of the premium over 12 months, full details of this facility can be found on our website or from your insurance broker.

When does the cover start and end?

This insurance cover is for a 12 month period and the start date and end date of the cover are specified in your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the policy?

You can cancel this insurance at any time by contacting your broker. After the 14 day cooling off period, provided you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for any time for which you have been covered, the administrative cost of providing the insurance and our standard cancellation fee.
